

Silent as a rock

I can talk to the ceiling
I can talk to the wall
I got this ghostly feeling I can't reach you at all

You're silent as a rock
and you don't give a fuck
I can tell
I can beg, I can plead
I can talk to the dog
this is hell

I have sent you red flowers
I can wait in the rain I am losing my powers you cannot know my pain

You're silent as a rock
and you don't give a fuck
I can tell
I can beg, I can plead
I can talk to the dog

you have changed my believings you have changed our fate
You have changed all my feelings
You have turned love into hate

You're silent as a rock
and you don't give a fuck
I can tell
I can beg, I can plead
I can talk to the dog
this is hell

I can tell
I can beg, I can plead
I can talk to the dog
this is hell
