

Sometimes

Sitting all alone
playing with my phone looking at the screen and I wonder where you've been Checking out my mail peeking through a veil Stalking in the night something doesn't seem quite right

Sometimes I think
you're avoiding me
I wish you'd stop
and come forward to me
sometimes I think
you're just teasing me
I wish you'd stop
playing silly games with me

Sometimes I think
you're avoiding me
sometimes I don't think you're pleasing me
sometimes I think
you're just teasing me
sometimes I think
we never should have met

Staring at the wall Waiting for your call telepathy won't do
I can only think of you

Playing silly games calling out your name sitting on my chair
crying out loud in despair

Sometimes I think
you're avoiding me
I wish you'd stop
and come forward to me
sometimes I think
you're just teasing me
I wish you'd stop
playing silly games with me

Sometimes I think
you're avoiding me
I wish you'd stop
and come forward to me
sometimes I think
you're just teasing me
I wish you'd stop

Sometimes I think
sometimes I think
sometimes I think

Sometimes I think
I wish you'd stop
and come forward to me
sometimes I think
I wish you'd stop
