

Sunday

I'm waiting to say
the line of my life
a story been told
an afternoon size

Sunday all my life
singing and dancing
the day away
fun-day all the time
follow directors
hand and wink

I'm keeping my vow
and follow the script I'm playing my role
and something I stole

Sunday all my life
singing and dancing
the day away
fun-day all the time
follow directors

looking into your eyes
this is where we say goodbye forget about the past jumping and prancing

fading away someday
this is where we split our ways the past is gonna last
saved on celluloid

The Sunday is gone
and with it the fun
eternal motion
life has been preserved

Sunday all my life
the day away
fun-day all the time
follow directors
hand and wink
