

Thoughts of Love

(ace of swords)

The distant mountains lies naked a hand is holding a sword
The crown of victory, the olive branch and leaves of palms will make a stand

Reflecting lights of clarity
The lights of good and bad
I got to find my own divinity
It makes me feel so brand new

Thoughts of love and care
strength of victory
I hope you will be with me there
I got to trust my authority

I got to focus somehow
I got to see clearly now
I cut away confusion, dissolution see through clouds of misty mind

Thoughts of love and care
strength of victory
I hope you will be with me there
I got to trust my authority
