- a. Through the dimension

I'm standing on the platform watching trains come and go I saw you in the mist again now I see you, now I don't

Waiting forever
we know it's now or never can't you feel the tension you're breaking through the dimension

Waiting forever
we know it's now or never
I'm breaking through the
dimension

- b. Drowning in my sleep

Drowning in my sleep
as I'm counting sheep
sinking in my bed
the sky is glowing red

I'm walking on a rooftop watching days come and go I caught a glimpse of you again echoes of you breaking through

Drowning in my sleep
reaching out for help I lost it for myself

Waiting forever
dimension

I am falling slowly
like a sinking ship
I am waiting only
for the final leap

Will we walk together
through the corridors
will we talk together
flog the painted horse

like a sinking ship
for the final leap

c. Intruders (instrumental)

d. Sunlight through the water

Sunlight through the water shining like a distant star soundscapes in cathedrals clashing like the waves at the shore

Rising up towards the light
like a fish now
looking out across the field
like a bird now

shining green and shining blue the sight burst like bubbles leaving me in velvet darkness

Diving down and rising up what's the difference running out away from you like a coward

e. Shapes in the night

Sleepy lanterns glowing in the night
casting shadows
on the lonely road creepy shadows
dancing in the hall
never stopping,
always on the run

Shapes in the night
it could be you, it could be me
shapes of a fight what have I just done

Gloomy treetops
swaying in the wind wailing sad songs as the rain sets in go to shelter while you still got time
burning candles
I need a little light

Shapes in the night
shapes in the light where have you just gone

f. Forever running

Run away or do the chase it will keep you on the run drag away or do the blaze it will keep you having fun

I'll be forever running no matter what I do
I dare not take a break
I know you do not too

Run away or do the chase
cause it keeps the goal in sight blast away or take a shot cause I know I'll run tonight

I'll be forever running
no matter what I do

no matter what I do

g. Through the dimension (reprise)

I'm floating in the thin air checking out the perspective I saw you walking out again never change your direction

Waiting forever
dimension

dimension
