

Tomorrow

I'm too late again
I'm gonna lose a friend
I can't keep it up when will it ever stop

I can't pay my dues
I'm gonna sing the blues
I can't win this fight
I'm gonna lose tonight

There'll always be tomorrow
there'll always be another day, another chance
to get the victory back home

Ain't got much to sell I'm gonna ring your bell though you made me cry last when you said goodbye

There'll always be tomorrow
day, another chance

There'll always be tomorrow
day, another chance
