

Waiting on you

I'm sitting by the table where we used to be I'm waiting on you like I use to do before

You're living in another world, you never came I'm living in a dream
I hope to meet you there

Waiting on you
ain't got no clue
why you would leave me
behind like you do

Waiting on you
ain't got no clue
why you would leave me
behind like you do

I'm looking out the window at the people there I'm glancing at the door
I hope you will appear

Waiting on you
ain't got no clue
why you would leave me
behind like you do

Waiting on you
ain't got no clue
why you would leave me
behind like you do

Waiting on you
ain't got no clue
why you would leave me
behind like you do
