

Who can say?

Round and round and up and down in and out, we live in doubt light and dark and shades of grey where's the torch that lights the way

Color scheme and love supreme find the core, we search for more Discipline, debauchery do we really have a choice?

Who can say
what we're going for when we don't know
which direction we shall go?

And who can say
which direction now
what we are going for

Karma here and karma there find the way through all your lives progress and regression back and forth, depression

Don't do this and don't do that mind your health, control your thoughts pendulums and crystal shards balance your intuition

which direction we shall go?

Find your true self, your beauty, your special gifts the purpose of your life will stand so clear for you

Energies will come alive, colors, crystals and jewels will shine by the powers of the universe
