

World of Angels

Living in a world of angels flying by
I don't understand and no one's asking why

World of angels
they don't seem to care
world of angels
it's too much to bear

Hiding in the shadows of the city streets
hope to find a place unseen for us to meet

World of angels
they don't seem to care
world of angels
it's too much to bear

World of angels
they don't seem to care
world of angels
it's too much to bear

We are but tourists
trying out happiness
trying out sorrow
trying out tomorrow

We are but tourists
living life in luxury suffering, grief and pain we don't remember anything

Run away for nothing but the fear itself
getting caught in a spiders web call for help

World of angels
they don't seem to care
world of angels
it's too much to bear

World of angels
they don't seem to care
world of angels
it's too much to bear
